

Dear FCC:

I am disgusted with Michael Powell's plan to allow for more media concentration. In Los Angeles, Channel 9 and Channel 2 are owned the same company and actually share newscasters! Could you imagine Michael Jordan appearing in a Bull's uniform one night and a Laker's uniform the next?

Oh, Mr. Powell? Just a little advice here. Lay off the free meals supplied by the media companies trying to buy you off. You're starting to look like Al Roker.
